Aviation is rapidly taking its place today as a common carrier, and the time when it will share with the older forms the problems of transportation is here. Its development will follow those lines where landing facilities are offered en route to traffic centers. May I send best wishes to Mansfield for the success of its Municipal Airport, and to the Manhigan because of its interest in aviation?

The Editorial Staff of the Manhigan
Mansfield High School
Mansfield, Ohio

Dear Friends:

It is a very pleasant surprise to us to learn that the annual publication of your School this year, "The Manhigan", is being built upon the aeronautical theme. We wish to express our appreciation for your selection of this particular theme because we feel it offers valuable assistance in promoting our Municipal Airport. It might be very interesting for you to know that rapid progress is being made in the completion of this project. It is also interesting to learn that you have selected and have had drawn up your conception of this proposed project.

To the minds of our Board, nothing in the present day is more important to any municipality than an airport. It is, therefore, gratifying to this Board to know that the younger generation has shown so much interest in the promotion of aeronautics. Any cooperation that will promote Mansfield's Municipal Airport will be highly appreciated because it is through the combined efforts of every one that this community will be in position to enjoy the service that this latest means of travel and transportation offers.

Wishing you every success, it is our pleasure to remain

Yours very sincerely,

THE MANSFIELD AIRPORT BOARD

JESSE BEER
Mansfield Senior High School

Mr. Beer was born and raised on a farm near Mansfield. His educational advantages during his youth were anything but rosy. By working his way and through the benevolence of brothers he received an education. After several years of preparatory work he taught the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth grades in the East Mansfield school. He liked teaching very much but his ambition was to study law. After teaching two years, Mr. Beer completed his preparatory course. He then entered the University of Chicago, from which he graduated with honors. During his last two years at this university he was an assistant teacher, directing laboratory work for analytical chemistry.

Upon his graduation from the university, Mr. Beer took over the position of head of the Science Department in Ohio Northern University. He attended summer school during this period at the University of Chicago.

At this time Mr. Beer taught in the Mansfield schools for several years.

For the past ten years he has taught in Cleveland. There he made a rule that he must know or learn to know both sides of any proposition. And not knowing the problems of administration, Mr. Beer enrolled in the Graduate School of Western Reserve University for a master degree in Education.

Mr. Beer says that education teaches one to give intellectual attention to people and things about him.

Although Mr. Beer aspired to be a lawyer he is now and has been a school teacher. This is chiefly due to three men, every one of whom advised him to teach. Upon asking them why they advised him toward this end he was informed that he had the main essential of school teaching—the ability to impart to others any information he had received.

So following the advice of his superiors, he changed his ambitions from law to teaching and has never regretted it. He contrasted the thought of standing before a jury and a group of young people eager to learn. The more he thought about it, the more the eager young faces lured him away from the jury box to the class room.

"Having been born and brought up in this community and being a property owner in this vicinity," said Mr. Beer, "I feel that I am filling the finest position I have ever had. I owe it to my friends."

Mr. Beer has, during the past year, directed our school, and lived among us as a true friend carrying out the same purpose which he has believed and lived through life—to assume and carry out, to the best of his ability, his share in the betterment of the universe, trying always to remember the other fellow's viewpoint. Through his attitude he has made all students not only love him for his personality, but to respect him for his character.

MR. BISHOP
Assistant Principal

One of our most outstanding teachers in Mansfield Senior High School is our Assistant Principal, Mr. Bishop. We all know how hard he works, always busy at something. He is one who never complains about his troubles for he keeps them to himself. We love to hear his interesting stories about army experiences. Mr. Bishop is a fair and square teacher, not only to his students but to the teachers and everyone whom he meets. All who know Mr. Bishop have a good word for him.

MISS FLORENCE J. SHIRES
Dean of Girls

This is Miss Shires' second year as the dean of girls in Mansfield High School.

Miss Shires has met personally girls who were making failing grades and has helped them to find and overcome the causes of these failures. Common causes of failure were found to be lack of interest in the subject, improper study habits, and lack of sufficient home work.

During a part of the last semester of this year Miss Shires with the help of a group of representative girls has been trying to work out the problem of "How Much Does It Cost the Average Girl to Go to High School?" The data received from this survey includes everything that a girl buys, clothes, meals, car-fare, luxuries, and entertainment. As this is not completed the figures cannot be given.

Miss Shires is not as some girls seem to think, a disciplinarian. She has been a friend to most of the girls of the High School and those who have not talked with her, will appreciate her friendship only when they have brought a problem to her to be solved, whether it be about studies, recreation, employment or financial problems.

JAN. SENIORS

JANUARY PILOTS

When reading a write up like this, one invariably expects to find a paragraph or two about someone's ability in his line of duties. After this comes the fact that this particular someone was greatly admired by his fellow students and faculty. Is it necessary in this case to say such things when they are known already? Enough to say our capable president, Glenn Houston, held this office two of the four years of the class of '29. One glance at Mary Jane Summers assures us of her pleasing personality. Who does not know Freddie Caston, the class secretary, who was also elected General Chairman of the Senior party? Then comes "Si", Sargeant at Arms, Si Robinson, the all around athlete; what more need be said? Our advisor, Mr. Mehock, seems to have become renowned for there is a rumor that the Junior class has chosen him as faculty leader also.

JUNE PILOTS

Our Craft is after four years of sometimes easy, sometimes hard flying, through fair and stormy weather, about to land in this great universal airport where each passenger will take his individual ship, sailing his own course into all corners of the earth. It has been necessary to have pilots through out this four years of constant travel in order to steer us over air pockets. The last year of this voyage was by far the hardest. We were fortunate enough to have as our chief pilot, Joe McClelland. We also found an efficient financier in Dick Bristor and an able Secretary in Naomi Dice. Our constant Adviser and Chief Mechanic has been Miss Mariel Aberle, whose ability in choosing a different but safe landing and guiding our final decent has made possible, to a great extent, our successful flight.

OUR WHOOPEE PARTY

Everybody noticed that the high school was "all lit-up" Saturday evening, April 13. Did they wonder what it was all about? Why, no, of course not, that was the night of the biggest social event of the year—The annual banquet held in the ballroom of M. S. H. S.—A novel whoopee party! In fact many have termed it the most unique and successful party they ever witnessed.

No one, surely, could object to the term, "ballroom" or the word "unique", if he had witnessed the attractive decorations and the program worked out by our clever and most artistic adviser, Miss Aberle, in cooperation with our president, Joe McClelland, our general chairman Bill Flinn, and the various chairmen and their committees.

The decorations were worked out cleverly in the class colors, gold and scarlet. The room was alternately paneled with large scarlet and gold tulips applied on long pieces of black net. The windows were trimmed in tulip shaped drapes and various colored balloons, and the lights were artistically shaped with gold and scarlet tulips. This alternate gold and scarlet scheme was admirably worked out at the tables beautifully decorated with candles, balloons, flowers, and "ye old English programmes".—And who can forget "ye olde towne pumpe"?

"Ye fare tonight" consisted of many interesting foods as "right young and tender whiffle hen ripped from ye bone" and "cream a la frigid air" modeled in accordance with "ye class emblem."

In addition to the varied bits of entertainment some very clever stunts were given by the different groups of the class and in addition to this a novel trial stunt was worked out by a special group. The loss of poor "Katy" Herre's famous "Etter" diamond produced some commotion!

Our new jazz orchestra also furnished much whoopee of which many made use between the punch and stunts.

Ignoring then that any clocks were turned ahead or any short-cuts taken home, our class, together with Mr. Beer thanks Miss Aberle for the best planned, most orderly and unique party any class has ever had.

12B PILOTS

Though a class of students, active in themselves, little has been done by the class of '30 thus far. The most important meeting of the class this year was that of March 18. It was then that it was suggested that the old officers be retained but several circumstances making this impossible, the 12B's chose their officers to pilot them through the remainder of their stay in M. H. S. Don Sharp was elected president, replacing Bob Angle; Richard Loersh became vice president, succeeding Gene Almy; Genevieve Howell was reelected secretary; Ruth McConnell was chosen for the office of treasurer which Jack Gettles left; Miss Mary Bloor was voted to continue as Faculty Adviser. Several less important meetings have been held for planning a party and also for attempting to get senior rings and pins before the last semester. As this class steps forward to assume the honored position of seniors, much may be, and is expected of it. Just watch old '30.

CAST OF SENIOR PLAY

Mary, Mary Quite Contrary

Miss Emma Waring chose the cast for the play presented by the June Class of 1929.

The plot of the story and characters are as follows: Mary Belle Marquis has been chosen to play the part of "Mary, Mary Quite Contrary." Lester Berger, in the role of Sir Henry Considine gets into a great deal of trouble when he comes under the spell of "Mary". Geoffrey Considine, played by Wilson Barnes, is a young poet who has also been captivated by the charming and sophisticated "Mary". Sheila Considine, played by Clara Conklin, thinks a great deal of Geoffrey, and she allows herself to become desperate when she sees that he is infatuated with "Mary".

Josephine Bushnell plays the part of Mrs. Considine, the charming hostess of the weekend party. Her husband, Canon Considine, played by Charles Brown, supplies many interesting incidents. Mr Hobbs, Bob VanTilburg, and Miss Mimms, Kathryn Herre, are "Mary's" manager and a Girl Scout worker respectively. They are both amusing and clever. Mr. Beeby is a friend of Mr. Hobbs. The part is played by Bill Flinn. The Considine's maid, Jenny, is played by Martha Boyce.

The play, an English comedy in four acts, written by St. John G. Ervine is modern in every respect.

THE JUNIOR PROM

The Junior Prom, given by the 11A class at the M. S. H. S. cafeteria, April 11, was the first underclass party that has been held for several years. The class chose Mrs. Weltha McNamara of Steuben, Ohio, as Mistress of Ceremonies, who furnished the greater part of the entertainment for the evening. The dance program was broken up by three intermissions and during these periods the entertainment was given.

In the first intermission, Bob Burger, class secretary, read the class will. At the second interval, Mrs. McNamara gave several readings and sketches which were very amusing. Following this, refreshments of ice cream and small cakes were served. Last of all, our well known dancers, Georgian Eby and Margaret Spain gave two numbers.

The cafeteria was beautifully but simply decorated with the class colors of green and gold which were carried out with crepe paper and balloons. The bright colors along with the yards of serpentine made a very attractive and colorful room. Music was furnished by the M. S. H. S. dance orchestra under the direction of Paul Burgener. The juniors were certainly proud of their party and if they can do so well when they are juniors, think what their senior party will be.

Sometimes a new project succeeds and sometimes it does not. The interest and enthusiasm that are manifested in our new student participation assembly programs show that this new project introduced by our new assembly committee is a success. This committee headed by Miss Waring and consisting of six teachers and four students plans and arranges the assemblies for the year. The aim is to present varied and interesting programs and to give everyone a fair chance of participation.

A questionnaire was distributed throughout the student body in order to find out how many were willing to participate, how many had taken part in an assembly, and to give the students a chance to offer suggestions for programs. The results were more than satisfactory and gave an impetus for continued efforts on the part of the committee.

THE GHOST STORY

THE ROAD TO AGIN COURT

RED MASQUE

The Red Masque Club is a club interested in dramatic production and appreciation. It consists of fifty members of Junior and Senior classes who successfully pass the tryouts held every semester before the executive committee. Fifty percent of the membership must be boys and fifty percent girls.

This year the club has concentrated on the presentation of one act plays for the club programs. Several of these plays were original, written by club members. Three matinee programs, an assembly program and two special evening programs were presented. This year the club presented a short tragedy as an experiment. Probably in the future more plays of a serious nature will be given. These are means of training our pupils of M. H. S. to appreciate all types of drama.

A club party to which alumni members were invited was a feature of the year's interests. At this time a short comedy was presented in which all the girl's parts were taken by boys. The stage crew is picked each week from the club to aid in arranging the stage for other organizations and for the weekly assembly programs.

When the Stratford players appeared in our Auditorium in the presentation of "Julius Caesar", many of the members helped out by taking parts in the mob scenes.

In the first matinee production, "The Ghost Story", the plot revolves around a bashful suitor, George, who in his ardent but stammering attempts to propose is interrupted by visitors, whom he finally compels to leave by telling them a weird ghost story. The pretended hysteria of Ann, the loved one, aids in the denouement.

The play "Fourteen", presented in assembly is a story of a resourceful society woman, who in spite of the mistakes of the daughter and the suggestion of the butler, and the many changes in number and personnel of the guests, finally establishes herself as a very successful hostess by presiding over a dinner party with the original number of fourteen, one of whom is the Prince of Wales.

The Road to Agincourt was the first tragedy ever attempted in M. H. S. This takes place in France during the English possession in the early 15th century. The English girl is held captive by two French noblemen. Though mortally wounded by one of these, she summons her lover from the secret passage and gives him a map which marks a secret road to Agincourt. She thus saves the English but, cursed by her captors and mourned by her servants, she dies in the moonlight while the confusion of the chase is heard outside in the courtyard.

M. S. H. S. Dance Orchestra

The dance orchestra is one of the most popular organizations in M. S. H. S. It consists of members who, for the most part, play in popular orchestras in Mansfield and know their jazz. This organization is the first of its kind in Mansfield High and has been a success in playing for class parties as well as the City Clubs.

M. S. H. S. BAND

The Band has played at all the football games and practically all the basketball games this past year and has done some mighty fine work. Their playing has helped win the games as much as the support of the rooters. They entered the state band contest this year and made a wonderful showing. A lot of credit is due Mr. Holcombe, the director, for the success of the organization.

"We know you are all happy just because you've seen a real old time show."

This was the end of the closing medley by the entire company at the seventh annual Minstrel Show on December 7, 1928. And a real show it was with the classy minstrel orchestra, the best ever balladists, and blackface comedians.

Under the direction of Mr. Holcombe, who was also interlocutor, the first part was a distinct departure from the old minstrel. The scene was midnight at the Palace de Paris Night Club. The seating plan was like that in a comfortable club instead of the old semi-circle.

The Sympathy Quartette composed of Bob Glessner, Bob VanTilburg, Ralph Miller, and George Izenour made a big hit, as did the premier comedians, Bob Springer and Jack Berno, together with the Pepper Sisters, George Ann Eby and Margaret Spain.

All those who have taken it have enjoyed it very much and now have a better knowledge of music. The second semester students have progressed to the extent that they have produced some very pleasing and original melodies.

The Boys' Glee Club is one of the established organizations in M. S. H. S., as well as one of the most popular. This year it was entirely reorganized under the leadership of the new director, Mr. Havlovic. About thirty boys became members. The students of the school have appreciated its appearances in assembly. By far the greatest accomplishment in the year's work was that done in the Red Mill, as some of the boys took principal parts while the others sang in the choruses.

BOYS' DOUBLE QUARTET

An interesting variety of songs comprises the programs given by the boys' double quartette, which has again been organized under Mr. Havlovic's selection. This group has been favorably accepted providing musical entertainment where music is desired.

Under the direction of Mr. Havlovic the Girls' Glee Club has this year come to the front in school affairs. In years past this organization did not make many public appearances; but this year it has given several performances. The girls have chosen for their costume an ensemble of a black jacket and white skirt. All year the girls have worked hard to make their club a success and to gain recognition, both of which they have received to the fullest extent. Much of the success is due to the helpful efforts of the director and it is hoped that in years to come the club will make something of this opportunity that has been given.

Opening Chorus

The play opens upon a group of artists and models. The models, tired of work, suggest refreshments. While they are waiting, Willem, the innkeeper, arrives telling them to move on. Willem is expecting company for the next day but having lost all his helpers has to use as servants "Kid" Conner and "Con" Kidder, two Americans who cannot pay their bills. Tina announces that she is going on the stage with "Con" Kidder as her manager, much to the disgust of Willem.

Gretchen who is to be married to the Governor of the Zeland the next day, is strongly opposed to him and very much desires to marry Captain Von Damm. She is aided by her Aunt Bertha planning an elopement for the night. "Con" and "Kid" help her to escape from the Red Mill where she is hiding. That same night "Con" and "Kid" plan to escape but are detected by the Burgomaster. Tourists arrive and cause great excitement because of an accident which has happened near the Inn. "Con", Willem's interpreter who has boasted of speaking seven languages is sent for and does more to mix things up than help them.

Gretchen and Doris's plans are revealed and the sheriff is sent to arrest them. After the capture Gretchen escapes again. The Burgomaster thinking she has been stolen or has vanished according to the legend.

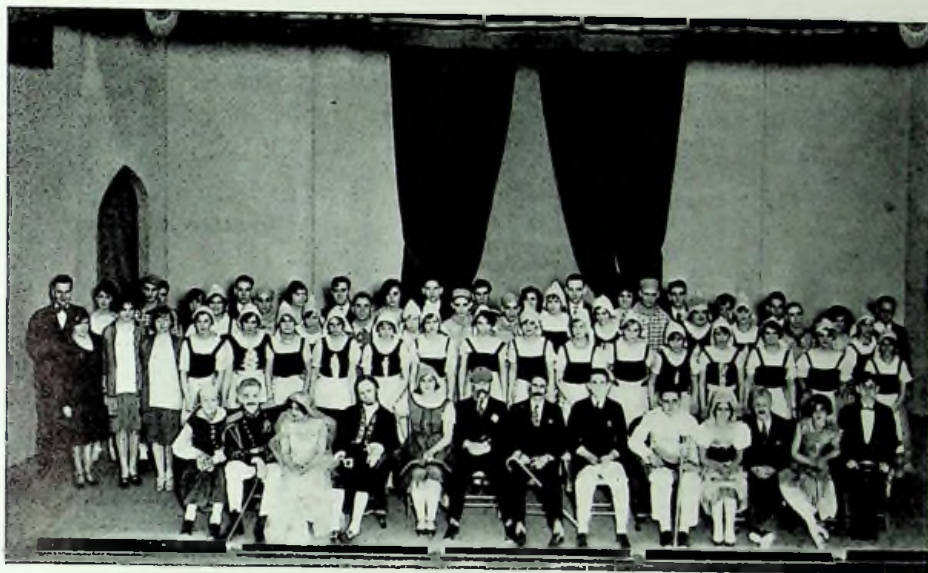

At the beginning of the second act "Con" and "Kid" appear in the guise of Italian musicians and again appear shortly afterwards in the guise of Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson when they discover that these two detectives have been sent for to recover the lost Gretchen in time for the wedding. They succeed in completely fooling the Burgomaster, and were sure of finding Gretchen because they have left her in the safe keeping of Tina.

After a short time they claim that she is found and the Burgomaster orders them to proceed with the wedding. The governor and Bertha plan it so that when the veil of the promised bride is raised, the face of Bertha is revealed to the audience. Dr. Watson receives the promised reward after which the real Gretchen appears handcuffed to Captain Von Damm; at the same time the Americans reveal their identity.

The act closes with Doris receiving 50,000 pounds and the two Americans singing the famed "In Old New York" accompanied by the entire cast.

The mixed chorus is an organization recently started in our school. Mr. Havlovic, our music supervisor, began this last fall at the opening of school. It proved to be very promising from the start, as a great number of students wished to become members. The mixed chorus is in no way connected with the boys' and girls' glee clubs. This chorus has taken part in a few assembly programs during the school year. Mr. Havlovic and the students have worked very hard and in late performances have shown that even though this is a new organization in our school it can be classed as high as any other musical group in the school.

Purpose—To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

This organization is composed of Juniors and Seniors and has become a very important organization in the school. Some of the outstanding accomplishments of the Senior Hi-Y are the April "Find Yourself Campaign", the selling of one thousand football pins, sending delegates to the State Conference at Springfield, and to the District Conference at Medina, Ohio and giving a large sum of money for foreign work in the Hi-Y World Brotherhood Pledge.

SENIOR BLUE TRI

The Senior Blue Tri, one of the largest and oldest organizations of the school, is open to any girl in the high school who cares to join. Its purpose as stated in the National Girl Reserve Motto is, "To find and give the best".

Interesting and educational meetings are held twice a month in the cafeteria under the leadership of the president. Throughout the year many social functions including the Faculty party, Hallowe'en party, Hi Jinx Frolic, and Mother and Daughter banquet are held.

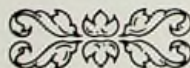

This organization was very active and shared the responsibility of bringing the Wooster Symphony Orchestra to Mansfield. By helping with the community chest fund each year, brightening the Christmas day for the men of the G. A. R. and by promoting friendship and fellowship among the students, this organization has rendered many services to the school and community.

JUNIOR HI-Y

The Junior Hi-Y is an organization similar to the Senior Hi-Y, but composed of boys in the Sophomore class of High School.

The following are the things accomplished by the Junior Hi-Y in the past year: 1. Sold two-hundred football pins for the Senior Hi-Y at the John Simpson Junior High School. 2. Study of the Bible, and Hi-Y principles, in preparing for the Senior Hi-Y. 3. Sent delegates to the State Conference at Springfield, and to the District Conference at Medina, Ohio.

PHOTO CLUB

The Photo Club is in its second year of most successful service to the many departments of our school. We are very fortunate in having such an organization whose faculty sponsor and members are not afraid to face big problems.

The club found it necessary to enlarge its membership in order to do the many things that were presenting themselves. Members were given every chance to do all phases of amateur photography and finishing. Special opportunity was given to work in the fields of flashlight taking, enlarging, coloring photographs, and sepia toning.

Each member is being given a chance to compete in two contests during the year. The scrapbook contest includes anything which portrays phases of the work. In the amateur photographer's contest only personally taken pictures may be entered.

The greatest undertaking of the Club for the year was making the portraits of the underclassmen beginning with the 12B's. Such a venture required the sacrifice of personal energy and time that only those who were closely connected with the work can realize. In accomplishing such a piece of work, they may be justly proud because the most of schools would consider it an impossibility under such conditions. Quite a large number of the members helped, but special mention for unselfish service is due to Esther Weingartener, Raymond Minard, Marabelle Place, William Miller, Margaret McLaughlin, Elsworth Ketner, Giles Hamilton, for general work; Paul Simon and Roy Myers, for the Photographing; with Roy Myers deserving almost entire credit for mounting the 1200 pictures (underclass and clubs).

With such a group of willing workers, anything is possible and to them we must give just and deserving recognition.

Social Science Service Club

This honorary club, composed only of students exelling in social science subjects, has done much toward serving the school and the community. At Thanksgiving and at Christmas, when placed in charge of the donations for the Humane Society, this club displayed its willingness to serve by distributing provisions and money to the needy.

During the year several picture shows were sponsored by this organization to raise money with which to carry on the good work. This club shared the responsibility for bringing the Wooster Symphony Orchestra here. Each year the members do greater service to the community and school, and with the co-operation of the student body much may be expected of them next year.

THE SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club was organized for the study of all phases of science and to give its members a chance to express their theories on the subject. It was formed Oct. 2, 1928 by nine boys Angle, Rust, Berger, Barnes, Mosey, Davis, Keller, Izenour and Bell with Mr. Ketner, Prof. of Physics, as faculty adviser.

Building an apparatus for receiving and sending television has been the main accomplishment of the club. It has also constructed a reflecting telescope of unusual power, and has given entertainments to provide sufficient funds to carry on this work.

The club is limited to twenty members each of which must have had at least one and one-half years of science to become eligible for membership. It promises to become one of the most prominent organizations of M. S. H. S.

DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN

The German Club, a new project this year, was organized for the purpose of promoting interest in this language. The members of the club have made a study of German writers and customs during the year. In April an interesting assembly program was sponsored by the club. Many German songs and poems were presented to the school. The club is planning to broaden its scope in future years so that all meetings may be held in German. Conducted entirely by students with Miss Ruess acting as faculty adviser, the club has placed emphasis on practical German and for this reason many informal talks have been given which gave the student a better understanding of the language.

THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL

An Athletic Council composed of the principal of the school, the school treasurer, and his assistant, the faculty manager of athletics and the coaching staff was organized during the first semester of the year for the purpose of securing better coordination between the faculty, students and the athletic department. The difficulty of finding a suitable time for meetings and the lack of a comprehensive program handicapped the committee throughout the year. Perhaps its greatest accomplishment was in setting a schedule of prices, both to students and the public under that charged in former years. Some accomplishments, some failures may be charged to it. We feel it justified its existence and hope to see its field of activity greatly extended by the time another Manhigan is printed.

League Games

In their first league encounter the Tigers met Bucyrus on the latter's field and played a 0-0 tie. It was the first big game for both teams.

Mansfield's players showed their superiority over the Bucktown Redmen on both the offense and the defense. On the offense the Tigers worked the ball four times to within the five yard line, only to fumble and have Bucyrus kick out of danger. On the defense the locals stopped everything that started their way, even throwing the highly touted Monnett for losses and short gains.

One of the features of the game was that Capt. Earl McMullen scooped up a fumble and scampered across fifty yards of turf with Redmen pursuing him and some lying in ambush for him. After he made his way through, it was found that the referee had declared the ball down before the fumble occurred.

Now that was just too bad!

One outstanding player on the local eleven was Gene Earick who hit the line for big gains throughout the whole game and who was a bear on the defense. Too much good cannot be said of Gene.

ROBINSON

At the Marion game a huge crowd of ardent fans crowded Stadium Field in order to see the "Tigers" run rough shod over the Marion team to the tune of 6-0. The Marion crew, a highly touted football machine, with Mr. Mc-

HOLMQUIST

Annich, football specialist, to help them out, journeyed to Mansfield as top heavy favorites. There was no doubt as to which was the better team until the grand final.

At the opening of the game both teams showed both a strong defense and offense, neither being able to gain an advantage. With the game running along smoothly, the Marion fans rooting for Mr. McAnnich, everyone seemed to forget that each team might have a star. About that time Mansfield's Ace in the hole, a dark one too, Si Robinson, took the ball and ran, galloped, hurdled, plunged, and straight-armed his way for a "Tiger" touchdown. Mr. McAnnich was soon forgotten. The game ending without further scoring, although Mansfield threatened twice later in the game, only to have each thrust stopped when close to the goal.

Early in the season Galion looked like the team to win the coveted bunting, having a full team of lettermen to play ball for them. They met Mansfield on the local's field where, surprise of surprises, they were swamped by a score of 36-19.

KYLE

The Eatonmen simply could not stop the locals after Si Robinson began to trot around the ends. This colored flash scored five touchdowns for the Tigers, besides playing a real defensive game. It was a case of sheer folly for the Galionites to attempt to make good on a play around the end guarded by our Si.

The Manhigan

FORD

BRIDE

The Galion points were all results of passes which they completed to put them in the scoring zone. Then Bob Zinn, speedy captain of the Eatonmen carried the ball around his left end, outrunning everyone, even his interference.

The criticism of this game as given by the Galion people was, the Tigers had too much Si Robinson.

And here comes a game I hate to think about, let alone write about. Shelby! Oh! what a taste that leaves. Mansfield journeyed to Shelby as top-heavy favorites over the weak Shelby team. The Shelby people backed their team to the limit, even when they fully realized how weak they were. But, oh! how strong a weak team can be! 7-6.

The Tigers took the field confident of victory, but the fight that is produced in Shelby when that town is playing against Mansfield was just too much. Dick Reidel, flashing captain of the scarlet and grey crew, started the ball rolling in the second quarter when he carried it over for a touchdown. The cool headed signal caller, Mr. Miller, then stepped back and converted the try for a point, the point that won the game.

ANGLE

Mansfield's only hope then came into action. He, Si Robinson, carried the ball on a split buck and ran twenty-five yards for a marker and six points. Earick's kick for extra point was wide of the uprights and the score stood 7-6 in favor of Shelby. No scoring was done by either team during the last half and amid thunderous cheers and loud acclaims, Shelby was declared victor in the big football game.

Turkey Day once more arrived and brought to all football minds the rivalry between Mansfield and our neighboring villagers. Ashland. It also brought to mind memories of that date one year previous when Mansfield defeated the Ashland boys and somewhat roughed them up.

Neither team had a chance to garner the coveted bunting, but a great game had been looked forward to because of the bitter rivalry of the two teams. The Tigers journeyed to Ashland as slight favorites in the minds of Mansfield fans and rated the under-dogs by Ashland followers. This pre-game rating did not long exist when Silas Robinson, Mansfield's "Galloping Ghost" began to gallop. Mansfield started off with a bang, showing so much superiority over their foes that even Ashland fans conceded the Tigers a slight chance to win.

The half ended with Mansfield on the long end of a 21 to 0 score, much credit given to Si Robinson who ran for 3 touchdowns in this period. The second half was but a repetition of the first for Mansfield was able to score almost at will. Robinson again gained many yards through and around the Ashland line. Earick also contributed to the grand total by scoring 2 touchdowns and converting 5 points. The final score, 53 to 0, gives the reader an idea of the superiority of the "Tigers".

Thus ended a good football season.

Non-League Games

Mansfield opened the football season by playing Fredericktown. The first two plays gave Mansfield a touchdown.

Fredericktown, seeing they were outclassed, resorted to passes twelve of which were effective. Our line continually drove the Red and Gray line back for gains of 15 and 20 yards. Bride, Earick, Carver, Robinson, and Fetter scored touchdowns for Mansfield while the visitors' points were collected by McHarland and Sockman. This was the only game of the season in which practically all of the Murphymen saw action in some stage of the contest. Score 44-19.

The second non-league game was contested with the Tiffin Jr. Order of A. M. When the Tiffin aggregation met the Murphymen, M. H. S. suffered defeat by a score of 14 to 7. Both sides fought hard for every inch of ground gained, but the Murphymen did not gain enough. It was Tiffin's aerial attacks which beat the M. H. S. gridgers. Mansfield put up a good hard fight but Tiffin's passes were more successful than straight line plunges and end runs. Tiffin had a knack of coming through our line and stopping the runner before he got well started. Mansfield was also penalized a great deal. In the beginning of the game Tiffin, not being used to the method of signals used by the Red and White Tigers, was off side a number of times. In this game as in the Fredericktown game, Coach Murphy found many of the good and bad points of the team which were later corrected.

KOLBY

At last a much wished for thing came to Mansfield High School in the form of a game between Pittsburgh Peabody and the M. H. S. gridironers. This game was of double interest because of Williams, the colored flash of Peabody, who was said to be as fast as our "Si" Robinson. Mansfield came off at the big end of a score of 33-14 in spite of all the threats and assaults of Williams.

The Manhigan

Shortly after the game began Mansfield recovered a fumble and after several runs by "Freddie" Carver and "Si" Robinson the ball was placed over the last line for the count of six. Again the Tigers recovered a fumbled ball, and again "Si" Robinson raced over for his second touchdown. Schuster's kick went wide, but Peabody was off side so Mansfield received the extra point.

In the second quarter, Williams got his chance, and after several wonderful plunges and end runs succeeded in placing the ball over the line for the Smoky City's first counter. Towards the end of this quarter a bad pass from Mansfield resulted in a safety for Peabody, and the half ended with the score standing, Mansfield 13, Peabody 8. The second half started and Williams by a clever play ran 65 yards for a touchdown, making the score, Peabody 14, Tigers 13. This finished the scoring for Peabody. After that Mansfield was never in danger.

The fine work of Captain McMullen and his wonderful line was a very noticeable factor of the game and it was through their efforts that M. H. S. overwhelmed Pittsburgh Peabody by the score of 33 to 14.

The last non-league game which the M. H. S. gridders played was with Columbus North. The Mansfield team came on the field determined to do or die. They died, but they showed how football should be played against a better team. Robinson played a fine defensive game, and the way Kyle and Earick tackled was creditable. Mansfield threatened the Columbus goal three times in the last quarter forcing them to punt. No other team has been able to make Columbus North do that this year, which speaks well for our team.

M. H. S. 23—Wooster 9

The 1929 season opened when the Tigers met Wooster team on the local floor, and defeated them 23-9. Coach Murphy used eleven men in this tussle and was far from being disappointed in any of their plays. From the opening play the locals jumped into the lead which they held throughout the game. During the first half the playing was slow and uninteresting, but in the second half, when Wooster started playing more heads-up ball, the story was different. Bride and Sharp were high scorers.

M. H. S. 33—Crestline 12

In the second game this season the locals again showed what seemed to be championship form, by virtue of their 33-12 victory over Crestline. Coach Murphy again used his entire squad, hoping to find some new stars in the group. Each combination used by Mentor Murphy looked as if it had been playing together all season. Two men who did exceptional work however, were Jerry King and Don Sharp, two midget forwards. Bride was high scorer with 11 markers.

M. H. S. 27—Lorain 18

In their third game the locals looked for their first setback, their rivals being the tough Lorain quintet. However, the Tigers rather reversed things for their honorable opponents and defeated them to the tune of 27-18. By this victory the local fans knew that Mr. J. R. Murphy had turned out another good team, because Lorain had beaten several towns along the lakes. Bob Schuster, a new find for the pivot position played the best game of his career in helping down the lake city crew. King and Bride were high scorers.

Forward

M. H. S. 31—Westerville 23

Using substitutes in the last half of this game the Tigers again walked off with a well earned victory. During the first half the locals had things going just about as they pleased, with the score at the end of this period 15-4. During the second half, when playing against the Tiger reserves was the only time the Westerville crew showed much life. During this period they scored 19 points. Captain Bride was high scorer contributing eight field goals.

M. H. S. 14—Sandusky 15

Oh, what a game! This was a game played by two very evenly matched teams. The game was rough and fast, and until the final crack of the timer's gun it was anybody's game. In spite of the many attempted shots only six were marked up in scoring column for each team. Sandusky, however, collected three points from the charity strip to two for the Tigers. At the end of the regular playing time the score was deadlocked, 13 apiece. It was the little overtime period that did the work. Bride was high scorer for the evening.

M. H. S. 31—Alumni 17

The great traditional game between the Alumni and the high school team, played each New Year, was a little different this year than usual. Usually the grads lead the hectic struggle up until the last few minutes, only to lose out because of a final spurt by their younger opponents. This year the grads seemed to lack that certain something and the high school team romped all over them. Sharp was high scorer with 11 points.

M. H. S. 27—Canton McKinley 21

Great was the surprise, mingled with much joy shown by the Mansfield rooters at the termination of the Canton McKinley game. McKinley, holding victories over such teams as Dayton Steele and Columbus Central, came to Mansfield fully expectant of an easy victory. However correct this should have been, the hand of fate was against them. The Tigers, greatly aided by Don Sharp's sensational shots kept well in the lead until the timer's gun ended the fray. Sharp was high scorer.

M. H. S. 23—Marion 26

League games this year were just full of defeats for the Tiger team. It has been many years since Mansfield has held the cellar position in the N. C. O. rating. This year seemed to be a fatal one. To start off the 'Tigers' met the tough Marion team in their first league encounter. Led by McAnnich of football fame, the Compton coached aggregation swept through to victory. Simply not to be stopped. McAnnich scored 15 of the visitors' points. On the other hand the Tigers just couldn't get going. The Marion defense was impenetrable and long shots were attempted as a last resort. Bride was high scorer for the locals with 10 points.

GEORGE BEERY
Guard or Forward

M. H. S. 17—Fremont 33

This game, sad to relate, reminded the writer of some track meets he has witnessed, instead of a basketball game. It was just a matter of how the locals could hold the Fremont score. King and Sharp, the latter having moved up to forward to fill the vacancy left by Captain Bride, played the best games for the Tigers but their playing was not enough to stop Mr. Binkley and Co. King led the locals in scoring.

M. H. S. 25—Toledo Scott 22

The writer often has wondered why it is that when the visiting team is the heavy favorite, the Tigers can always go out and clean up the long end of the score. So it was in the Toledo Scott game. Mansfield had a good night from the charity strip making 9 out of 13 foul shots, to 4 out of 11 for the Toledo crew. Don Sharp, again at the forward post, played a "bangup" game for the Tigers, besides being high scorer for the evening.

M. H. S. 20—Bucyrus 34

Another league game come and gone and another league defeat marked up in the Tigers' little blue book. The Bucyrus Redmen set up a defense that the Red and White players could not penetrate. All sorts of tricks were used by the Tigers in an attempt to lure their opponents out of position, but the Redmen would not take the bait. Little Don Sharp played his usual good game, collecting eight points for high score for his team.

M. H. S. 20—Ashland 22

Another league defeat of the Tigers, only this time at the hands of our ancient rivals, Ashland. Mansfield's foul shooting ability came into the fore when they connected with 12 markers from the foul line making only four field goals in the entire game, two of which were made by Don Sharp. With the score 15-20 in favor of Ashland, the Tigers made the fans sit up and take notice. The locals began to hit the basket and it looked as if they might have a chance. Sharp was high scorer for the evening with 10 points.

BOB SCHUSTER

M. H. S. 24—Wooster 22

The Wooster team played by the Tigers in this game was a far different team than the one which the locals defeated 23 to 9 earlier in the season. Going back on everyone's opinions the locals appeared to be almost terrible foul shooters on this eve. Out of twenty-seven attempts from the charity strip, only ten went down in the scoring column. Big Bob Schuster played a swell game, being eclipsed only by Don Sharp who not only played a real floor game but was the high scorer.

EARL McMULLEN—Guard

EDDIE HOLMQUIST

M. H. S. 27—Galion 26

Here's where little Jerry King gets another write-up. This lad has been playing a stellar game all season, but his best game thus far was exhibited at Galion. It was Jerry's basket which won the game in the extra period. He was not the only one who was playing "heads-up" ball, for the whole Tiger team was doing just that. Don Kirkpatrick, another new find, played a real game at guard, as did Sharp who also hung up the scoring honors.

M. H. S. 18—Toledo Woodward 24

Saturday night, following the Galion game the Tigers journeyed to Toledo where they met the tough Woodward High team. Even if the team was defeated they also had a victory. This was none other than the playing of Bob Schuster, Tiger pivot man. Bob played the best game of his life and added six points to the local's total. He has just discovered that he can really play basketball. Big Bob was the high scorer for the locals.

M. H. S. 26—Shelby 32

What is worse than to have Shelby defeat Mansfield in football? Ans.—To have Shelby defeat Mansfield in Basketball. And that is just what happened this year. Shelby, where they just started to play basketball a few years ago, was on the short end of a 15 to 5 score at the end of the first quarter. Then showing that fight which is always ready to burst out in a Shelby-Mansfield conflict, the Scarlet and Grey warriors took matters a little more seriously and gradually pulled ahead of the locals. King was high scorer for the Tigers.

Guard

M. H. S. 34—Ashland 37

For the second time this season the locals have bowed to the Ashland High School basketball team. The fact that this was no league game made no difference to the locals as they were out for revenge for the defeat handed them earlier in the season. It seemed however that Don Sharp was the only Tiger out for revenge. Don proved to all doubters that he is undoubtedly one of the best basketballers in the state of Ohio. "Sharpshooter" Sharp hit the lattice work for no less than 26 points, almost a record. Even with these 26 points the locals could not win. Needless to say Don was high scorer.

GENE EARICK—Guard

TOURNAMENT

On March 1, Mr. J. R. Murphy took his boys to the Sectional Tournament which was held at Sandusky. Because of the poor record made during the season, the Murphymen were rated as one of the underdogs of the tourney. But you know how hard some of these underdogs can bite.

The Tigers had first to face Galion, a team which proved an easy prey for the Murphy coached lads, and which was beaten 40-24. The tough Sandusky crew were next in line for the locals, and they were sent to the showers on the short end of a 22-18 score. In the final game of the tourney, Tiffin, the other division winner, took the floor against the Tigers. Once again the Murphymen played that brand of ball they had not shown in any of their scheduled games, and the mighty Tiffinites were sent home defeated, the score 23-15. Many stars were found during these games, and were placed on the all-tournament team. Clayton Luckie, a new find from Junior High, and Ed. Holmquist played whirlwind games.

The next week the Tigers journeyed to Findley where they were to compete in the district tourney. Here, instead of being an underdog they were one of the possibles. The first game which was with Celina, went to the Tigers by a score of 31-26. The locals played very poor ball in this game. They next met the tough Lima St. Rose team who turned in a victory for their school at our expense, with a score of 22-25. Don Sharp was the big gun for the Tigers.

TRACK

At the opening of the track season this year Mr. Mehock's hopes for a championship team were not so bright. Most of the candidates were men of practicaly little or no experience. Only five letter men left from last year around which the team had to be built. These men were Capt. Bride who took care of the high hurdles and high jump; Bolesky, who runs the distances; Fetter, a dash man; and Earl McMullen who held down a position on the relay team and ran the 440.

The Redwings' first meet with Fostoria, was converted into a Tiger victory. The locals ran off with almost all of the

This was the first year that Mansfield has had a regular schedule for the swimming team. No easy team was picked for opponents, but all the "crack" teams in our section of the state.

Very little material was given to Mr. Weider, the coach, to make a strong team but he certainly made the best of what he

The "M" Association is a club composed of high school students who have received an "M" in some sport as a cheer-leader, or as a manager. The present club was organized by Coach Mehock two years ago.

The proceeds obtained from the sale of programs at the football games were used to purchase equipment for the cross-country track team. The annual dance was held in the ballroom of the Mansfield-Leland Hotel on Thanksgiving night. This was attended by all members of the association and many of the alumni.

GIRLS' Athletics

MARY VIRGINIA SELLERS

Directors of Girls' Athletics

Miss Sellers came to us this year as director of girls' athletics. After graduating from our own local high school, she attended Battle Creek College, taking the Kellogg course in physical education and obtaining her bachelor of science degree.

Miss Sellers has introduced many new ideas into girls' athletics, and has set up an entirely new program.

In this program she has divided her gym classes into squads with a leader for each squad and an inspector for the entire class. In the classes she has stressed tumbling and swimming. In order to create more interest in swimming she organized a team which met with Canton McKinley, and by her skillful coaching she turned out a winning team.

Miss Sellers originated the Girls' Athletic Association which has created a greater interest in all sports. She made it necessary that each girl have one hundred points in order to become a member of this organization.

She has changed the point system making it more difficult to obtain the required points, and also has changed the awards for gaining the points necessary. The red and white felt numerals, which are most striking, differ from last year's emblems or awards. If a girl is to receive her numerals she must earn three-hundred points and she must earn one-thousand points in order to receive her letter.

This department has been run very successfully under these new rules put in force by Miss Sellers.

Swimming Meet with McKinley High

The swimming meet held between the Mansfield and Canton girls was of special interest because it was the first of its kind to be held in the last ten years.

The Mansfield girls who were trained to the last degree came through with flying colors. Our girls started off with a bang by taking first and second place in the first event which was the crawl. Our girls also took first and second place in the event of the back stroke. Then after coming through fine in the other events such as the relay and taking first and third places in diving, the final score stood 42 to 38 in favor of the Mansfield girls.

Girls' Basket Ball—1928-29

The basket ball tournament was played in four games. There were five teams in the tournament. Neither the outgoing 12A's or the incoming 10B's entered a team. There were many outstanding players, in fact, too many to mention. The games were furiously contested, with the 12A team, captained by "Mart" Sattler emerging victorious. Although not much time could be given to this sport this year, the season was very successful. Under the leadership of Miss M. V. Sellers the girls learned much about the game of basket ball.

CLASS IN HOME NURSING

CLASS IN CLOTHING

The purpose of the lessons in Home Nursing is to give Home Economics students a clear conception of simple sick-room duties, a general knowledge of dangerous symptoms, and directions for first aid to the injured.

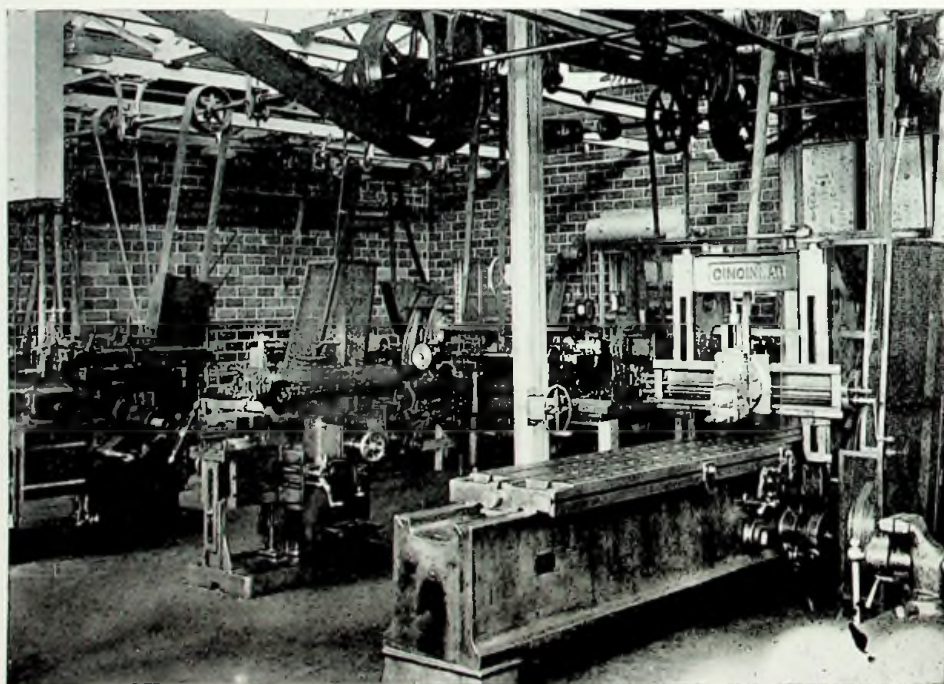

Clothing classes offer to Home Economics students an opportunity to study the principles underlying the selection, care and construction of clothing.

The Model Apartment provides actual practice for House Furnishing and Home Management classes. Here also is stressed the social side of home making.

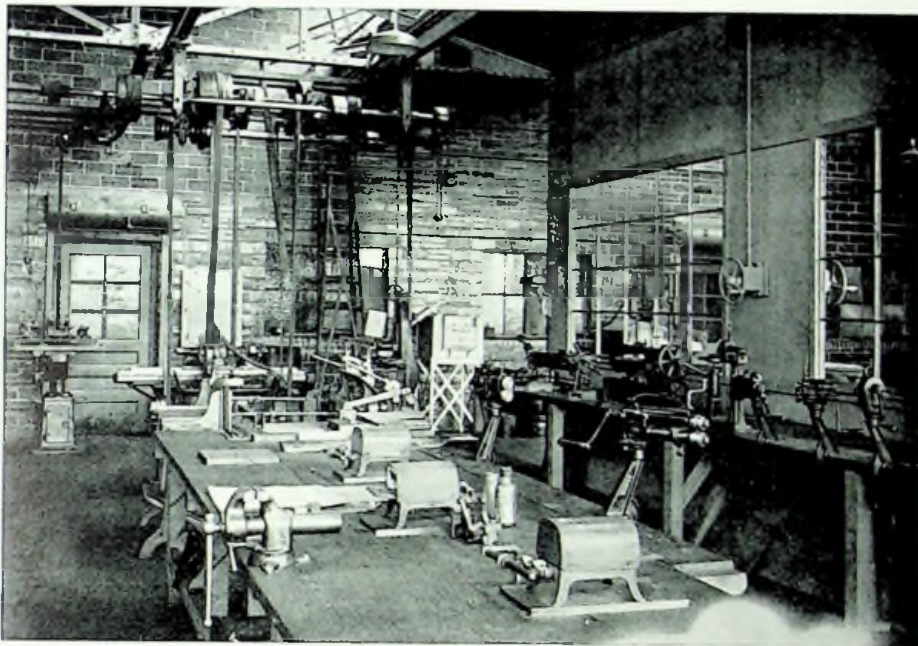

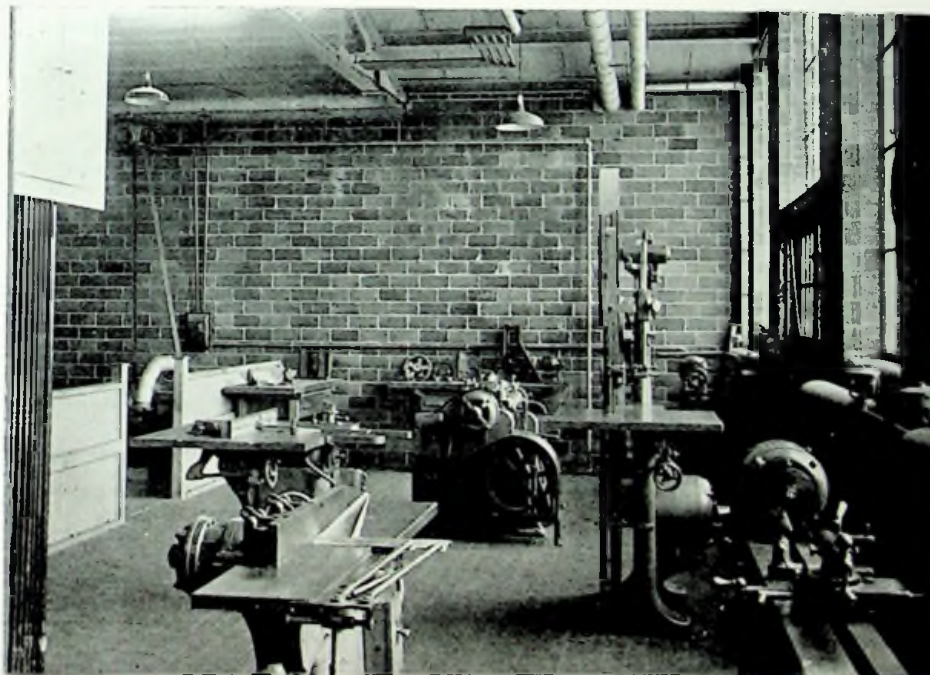

Machine Shop

SHEET METAL DEPARTMENT

PATTERN DEPARTMENT

FORGE AND FOUNDRY DEPARTMENT

FORGE AND FOUNDRY DEPARTMENT

The Vocational course offers to students a training in the fundamentals of a trade education. The course deals with the technique and arts of the metal trades as adapted to our local industrial requirements.

It trains one in the primary principles of industrial mathematics, mechanical drawing, and applied physics. The course further offers the only gateway to an apprenticeship training in any of Mansfield's industrial plants. The course holds out to young men with native mechanical ability and a keen mind, an opportunity equal to that of any other course in the Mansfield High School. Theodore Roosevelt said, "To train boys and girls in merely literary accomplishments to the total exclusion of industrial, manual, and technical training tends to unfit them for industrial work; and in real life most work is industrial."

Bright Sayings of the Infant Faculty

"Now Children," said Freddy Elder's school teacher, "I want each of you to think of some animal or bird and try for the moment to be like the particular one you are thinking about, and make the same kind of noise they are in the habit of making."

While the rest of the class instantly became a menagerie, Freddy was sitting perfectly still, apparently indifferent and unmindful of the rest. His teacher observing him said: "Freddy, why are you not taking part with the other children?" Waving her off with a depreciating hand and rebuking eyes he whispered: "Sh-sh-sh, teacher! I'm a rooster, and I'm a-layin' a aig!"

Jesse Smith was considered the brightest boy in his grade, and while the other fellows were studying it was hardly necessary for him to even open a book. At the expiration of the term, one of the questions in the written geography test was, "What is the equator?"

Always to be depended upon, Jesse wrote without delay, "The equator is a menagerie lion running around the center of the earth."

Harry Mehock, very sleepy was saying his prayers. "Now I lay me down to sleep," he began. "I pray the Lord my soul to keep".

"If," his mother prompted.

"If he hollers let him go, eeny, meeny, miny, mo!"

One day little George Hypes went calling, and his hostess said to him: "George, you appear to be in deep thought."

"Yes'm," replied George: "ma told me somethin' to say if you should ask me to have some cake or anything, an' I been here so long now I forget what it was."

Little Kathleen, coming in from her walk one morning, informed her mother that she had seen a lion in the park. No amount of persuasion or reasoning could make her vary her statement one hairbreadth. That night, when she slipped down on her knees to say her prayers, Mrs Mendenhall said, "Kathleen, ask God to forgive you for that fib."

Kathleen hid her face for a moment. Then she looked straight into her mother's eyes, and said, "I did ask him, mama, dearest, and he said, "Don't mention it, Miss Kathleen; that big yellow dog has often fooled me."

"Mama," said little Emma Waring, "how much does babies cost a pound?"

"You don't buy babies by the pound, dear," answered her mother.

"Well, then, why do they always weigh them the first thing, mama?"

Little Ella Chase was shown her newly arrived baby brother. Looking at him lovingly she said, "When will he talk, mother?" "Oh, not for a long time yet," said her mother. "Yes, but when?" persisted Ella. "Well, not for a year or so." After thinking for a minute, Ella exclaimed, "How funny. Miss Clark read out of the Bible this morning that Job cursed the hour he was born."

"Mother, mother, mother, turn the hose on me!" sang little Arthur Havlovic as his mama was dressing him one morning.

"What do you mean?" asked his mother.

"Why, you've put my stockin's on wrong side out," he said.

BRIGHT SAYINGS OF THE INFANT FACULTY

Herman Bishop, aged four, was one of a large family. Besides many brothers and sisters there were numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins, but the only very young people were those in his immediate household. During one Thanksgiving dinner Herman gazed solemnly around the table for a while, and then announced: "My Mother and the cat seem to be the only people in this whole family that have any children!"

One day a school teacher said to little Vernard Coe: "Vernard, what is the Hague tribunal?" To this Vernard answered: "The hague tribunal ar..." Don't say 'The Hague tribunal are,' Vernard: use is." Vernard continued: "The Hague tribunal isbitrates national controversies."

Russel Murphy, aged five, was taken by his father to his first football game. The feature that caught his chief approval, however, did not become evident until he said his prayers that night. To the horror of his parents Russel prayed with true football snap:

"God bless papa.
"God bless mama,
"God bless Russel:
Rah! Rah! Rah!

Little Maud was old for her years. One evening after she had gone to bed she heard mama and papa laughing in much enjoyment over a game of flinch; she longed to get up and join them, but knew she must not. The next morning at breakfast table she was very quiet. Presently she drew a deep sigh, and said, "What a good time you and papa had last night. Oh, I feel the need of a husband, mama, I do feel it!"

The kindergarten teacher said to her class, after they had been deluged with nature verses for weeks, "Now children, I want you each to bring in a little verse that you have made yourselves about the buds, or the trees, or the flowers, or anything that pleases you." The following specimen was produced by little Bertha Ruess:

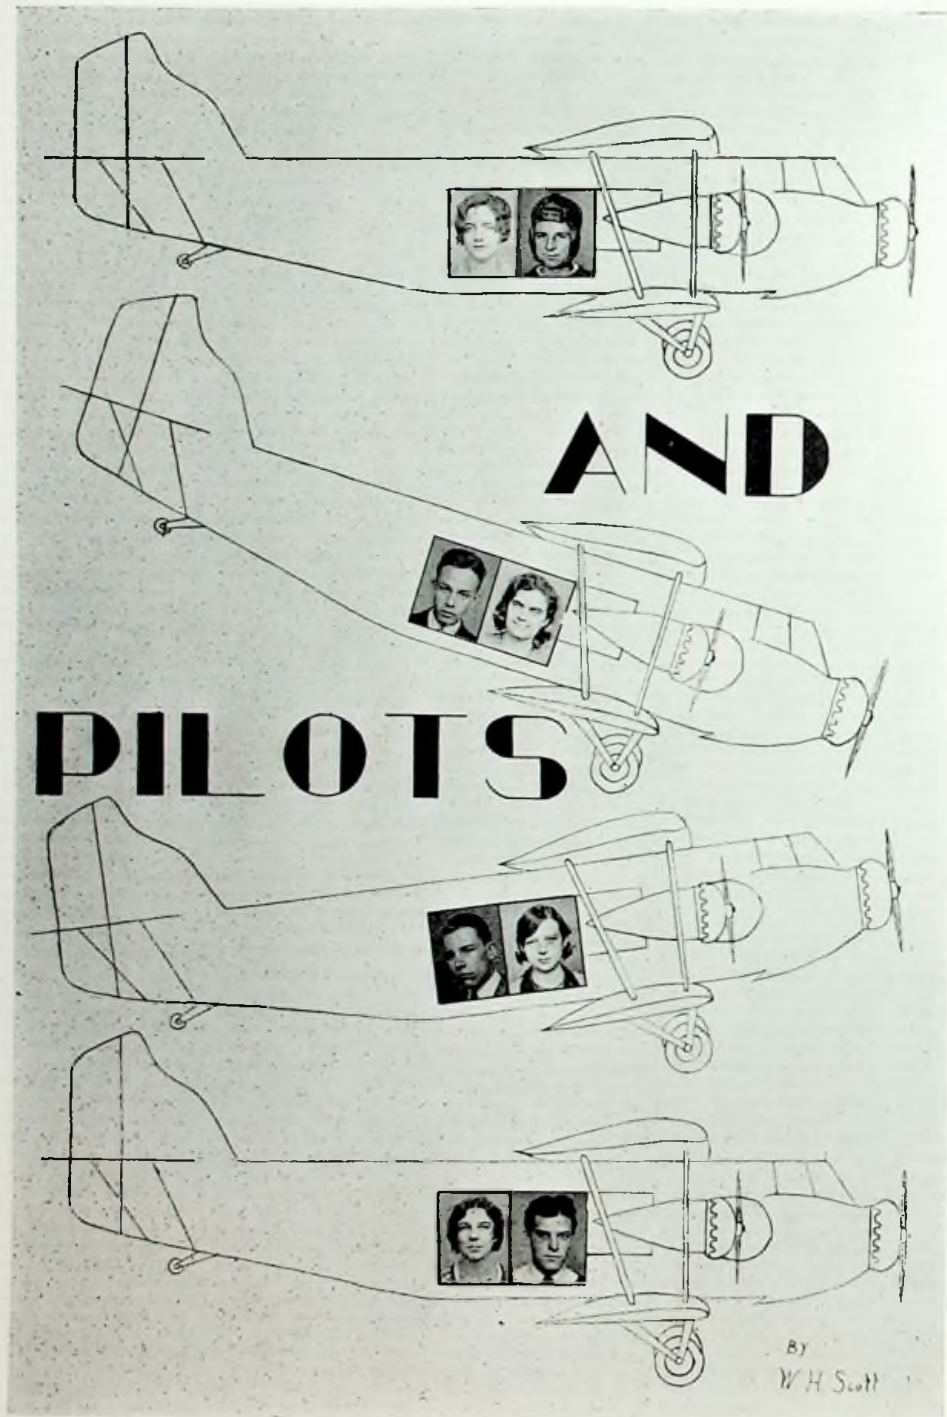

"See the pretty gold fish swimming in the globe!
See the pretty robin singing in the tree!
Who teached these two to fly together?
Who stucked the fur upon their breasts?
'Twas God. 'Twas God. He done it.

Mariel Aberle, aged four, went to her mother and in great ectasy exclaimed, "Oh, mother! Louise and Billy found such a nice dead cat, and they are going to have a funeral, and can I go?" Permission was given, and when Mariel returned she was questioned as the the outcome of the funeral. "They did not have it at all, mother. The cat was too dead."

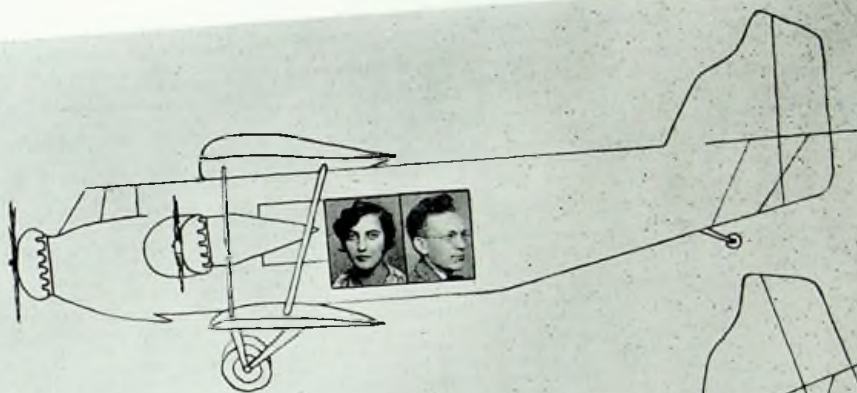

Mrs. Shires and little June were walking through a fashionable street when they came to a portion of the street strewn with straw, so as to deaden the noise of vehicles passing a certain house.

"What's that for, mama?" said June, to which her mother replied, "The lady who lives in that house, my dear, has had a little baby girl sent her". June thought a moment, looked at the quantity of straw, and said: "Awfully well packed, wasn't she mama?"

WAFUFUS*Vol. same*No. wrong*.14 & $ per year*BRISTOR AIRLINES ANNOUNCE NEW SERVICE

A New Air Service Announced by the Richard Bristor
Air Lines, Inc.

Details were completed at a meeting last week of the board of directors and chief engineers. It was decided that the terminals of the new line were to be located at Shelby and Lucas. Stops will be made between terminals, however, whenever possible. At first it was thought that Mansfield would be the only stop on the line but later on one of the directors brought out the point that extra passengers could be taken off and on at Alta upon the waving of a flag probably red in color.

The president and general manager of the company, Mr. Richard Bristor, will be remembered by many citizens as the man that put the air in airplanes. He was graduated from Mansfield High School a great many years ago and there had his first experience in flying. Old schoolmates say that he flew from the first floor to the fourth on which the cafeteria was located, on every school day during the lunch hour. No affidavits have been made to this effect but it is generally accepted as the truth. Mr. Bristor has been instrumental in installing an aviation course at the Mansfield High School. The athletic field is used as the airport.

To get back to the original subject, however, the new air service goes into effect the second Tuesday of next week. Further details will be presented at a later date.

Professor Fankhauser Discovers New Element

A new element has been discovered by Professor Fankhauser of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He has named it woman and has chosen the Wafufus as the means of first advising the public of its discovery. Professor Fankhauser will be remembered by former Mansfield High students as the man that invented the hydrogen sulfide generator and used the school as the place to carry on experiments with it to the general disgust of everyone who happened to be in the vicinity when the experiments were in progress. He has arranged his data in systematic form and it is reproduced herewith exactly as he wrote it.

Name—Woman.

Symbol Wo

A member of the human family.

IDIOTORIAL

Well, folks, the humor editor of this little high school catalogue has asked me to write a few words as an idiotorial to the Wafufus, the yearly bunk magazine, for the purpose of enlightening the audience as to a few salient features of this book. See? Before I begin I want to make a few little recognitions as to the outside help we have received in making this book a success. It happened in this way. We are deeply indebted first to Mr. Glenn Houston for the six snapshots which he so kindly submitted as snap editor of the Manhigan. Secondly, we would thank Mr. Houston's assistant worker who handed in the same amount of work during the first semester. We note with gladness in our hearts that she was able to hand in one extra picture during the second term which was her regime in the office of snap editor. Mr. Dave Ford is to be thanked for his excellent suggestions as sports' editor. We also thank Chal Heidinger for the drawings which he handed in. Both were excellent. All other members of the staff are also deeply thanked. We realize that we have insufficient room for the personal recognition of all on this page of paper but we would especially note the work of the two editors who were so generous in their help. Admitting that they were often in the way, we thank them anyway, for ignorance is bliss. See? Having done this, we also thank the faculty advisers for their kind co-operation. They meant well even though they didn't do so. We thank the engravers and the printers for their high prices which made our business managers think on higher planes than they are used to doing. And now let us proceed to the business in hand. Every year the high school puts out a little book which the people provide so that we may have a space in which to print this paper. Now a great many people may wonder just who "WE" are but in spite of the community spirit, "we" have nothing to say. Anyway, to go from the spot where we were when we were so rudely interrupted by the little boy in the pink trousers, there must be a reason to and for everything, else people say that it is crazy. Crazy is a latin word and is translated to be without reason as one of our good-humor teachers has said. The other one was sick, so we couldn't get his or her opinion). So you may ask the purpose of this paper. Well, the joke's on you: there isn't any. Ha! Ha! So we must be crazy. Yes, that's it: we're crazier than a bat. And we'll let it go at that.

AIRPLANES

I liked airplanes—that is, I used to.

Air, air, air. That was all I could hear. Talks about famous aviators, famous flights and what not. Even my wife was going air minded. She wanted to get a certain cleaner just because some aviatrix had one. Well, the sooner I got away the better I felt. So down to the club I went.

Even when I got there, the crowd was talking aviation. But I avoided the fellows and hunted a chair to read awhile. So I sat down next to a chap who was reading a book on metallurgy.—Ye guns and bullets!!! It was my old friend, Paul Simon, who was going to school to take up mining!!!

"What are you doing here, you old son-of-a-gun?" I asked.

"Aw, I'm resting up a little from all this aviation goofy crowd," he said tiredly.

Gee, then, here was a fellow that was not so gone on aviation. He too, like I, was trying to get away from the air minded crowd. But just then a funny feeling was getting hold of me. He was the first person that did not care for aviation, so just to be contrary I wanted to talk airplanes.

"Did you ever go flying?" I asked Paul.

He glanced up at me, hesitated, and then replied.

"No".

Before I knew what I had said, I had talked Paul into going for a ride with me the next day. I was to meet him at the air port in the afternoon. I did not like the look in Paul's eyes and "sorta" wished he wouldn't show up.

I was not going to take any chances so I trotted over to an aviation supply store to get me a parachute.

Seeing one that I liked I asked the clerk if it was any good.

"If it don't work, just bring it back", he piped up with a funny grin. I just gave him a dirty look and told him to wrap it up, for if it didn't work I wouldn't know about it anyway.

Well, the next day I was all ready to go to the aviation field. I had on a pair of jumpers, just like the kind you see those guys wearing when they go across the Atlantic, and had my trusty (?) parachute on my back. (I won't tell how I got it on, or how long it took.) I strutted across the field towards a fellow who was tinkering with an airplane before he was ready to take off.

NOSEY NOSEDIVES INTO PRIVACY

Miss Mary Twitchell, popular round-the-world aviatrix, will broadcast a series of talks from her airplane. Hardship, on the art of Dramatics. These talks will be relayed by station H. O. P., owned and perforated by Katy Hartman. Miss Twitchell is quite up in the air as to how her talks will be received by the public.

Miss Neville Stark, internationally known social worker, will speed up her work in calling on the unfortunate and needy children of the Home Economics department, by purchasing the three deck monoplane, "Heigh-Ho."

Miss Stark states that conditions are bad but expects to have them remedied to a minimum. She expects to visit three families each day and thereby have time to tend to her own knitting.

It is now rumored that she is the only successor to Jane Addams and Miss Addams position is uncertain since the purchase of "Heigh-Ho".

Her mechanic, Essay, will accompany her on her tours. He is now repairing the door bell on the plane which was injured on the last trip West.

Ike Fetter is recovering from a pulled tendon that he received in the International track meet at Ada last year ago yesterday. Coach Murphy is now careful that no other boys will pull tendons as they are hard to cure.

Bob Angle and Eloise Peppard were seen at Main and Sixth Streets in quest of a restaurant. It was rumored that One Lung's chop suey joint had exhausted its food supply and thus turned them out in the street to satisfy their never ending appetites.

Bob Zimmerman and Katy Spetka have retired to their home in Hollywood after a six month honeymoon tour in Paris. They will pass out free candy to the children to celebrate their marriage. Bob Angle, Chuck Brown and Sam Angelo will attend.

Mr. Chalmer Heidinger, well known Bohemian, has returned to Mansfield where he is staying with his wife, Mary McClellan, clerk of the court (plaster). He states that he has retired from active life in his Greenwich Village studio. His reason for retirement from the studio is that he missed his wife and wants to stick to her.

Bob Van Tilburg announces the arrival of a new whisker. This is the second of the family. The first was announced in the last issue of the Wafufus.

"Pardon me", I said, "can you tell me where I can—HOLY SMOKES!!!! What are you doing here?????" I roared. It was my friend Paul.

"Well"—stuttered Paul, "You didn't ask me or I would have told you. You see, I gave up mettalurgy and went in for aviation. So that means I'm pilot."

No wonder! That explained the queer look in his eyes last evening. And leave it to Paul to pull something funny like that. But I was game and quickly decided to ride with him.

I won't tell about the take off. But I was rather glad that I had been keeping up my life insurance.

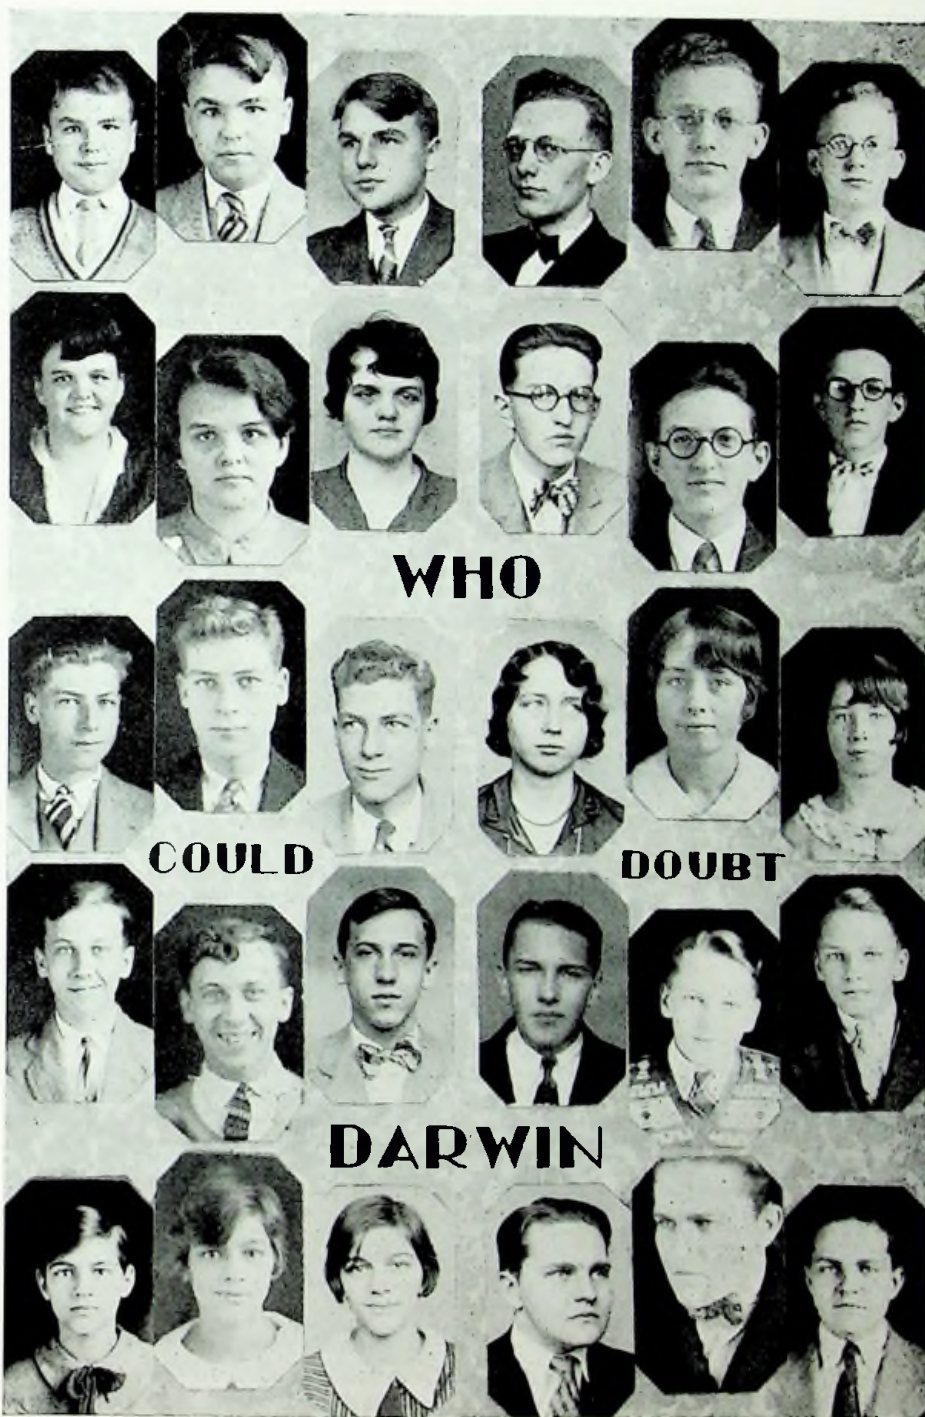

The ride?? No. I won't tell about that either, except that when Paul went around a curve and said,

"I bet half the people down there were scared when we did that." I replied, YEAH, and so did half the people here think the same".

And the landing?? No. I won't tell about that—but—

I liked airplanes—that is, I used to.

Congratulations to the Graduating Class

1929

In our recognition of this important event in the lives of all those graduating from the Mansfield High School, our heartiest congratulations are extended.

You are proceeding from this attained goal of accomplishment into a new and larger sphere of activity. Some have definite objectives and will pursue the things they like to do.

Success depends upon a wise decision—be sure you like to do those things—that they are constructively sound—that they represent a value to industry and society—then do them with enthusiasm.

FROM the ice-bound coast of Spitzbergen and Greenland, south to New Zealand, east to the Orient, west to Europe, Africa and Latin America—it sounds as if one were reading a world-map when the foreign countries are enumerated to which Ohio Brass Company's products have been shipped. During the last year, materials made here in Mansfield have gone to 61 different countries.

In jungles, in barren wastes, in cities, wherever electricity has been harnessed to the back breaking loads formerly borne on the shoulders of human sweat, there you will find O-B products helping to lighten the burden and to do the work cheaper and more effectively. These products are helping to develop new resources and to broaden the commercial horizon of many countries.

EDITORIAL

The students of the Mansfield Senior High School are greatly indebted to Mansfield's independent merchants and business houses. If it were not for their generosity in contributing through the advertising, this memorial to the classes that are passing on would be well nigh impossible.

Let us then patronize these friends who have so willingly given this aid for our benefit. Let us all get behind these independent merchants and give them our whole-hearted support in appreciation for the things they have done and are doing for us.

"INHERENT STABILITY"

Longitudinal Stability (Figure 1—left)

This type of stability is acquired by having a greater angle of incidence at the wing or main lifting surface than at the rear stabilizing surface. In figure 1, the figure of the plane shows it in normal flight. Let us suppose that an angle of  $12^\circ$  in the wing and an angle of  $4^\circ$  in the stabilizer are just enough to balance the plane in flight and to keep it on an even keel. Motion and propeller pull are both in the same direction P.

The diagram illustrates an unnatural attitude caused by a gust of wind striking the tail and raising it, thus lowering the nose of the plane. The direction P is the new direction of the propeller pull and corresponds to the direction of motion in normal flight. The direction A is the direction in which the momentum of the plane tends to carry it. The new motion of the plane will be in the direction M and will be the resultant of the two forces, A and P. The wing and stabilizer respectively are at angles of  $12^\circ$  and  $4^\circ$  to the direction P, but the motion M is, say,  $2^\circ$  nearer horizontal than P. If P were horizontal, the plane would be skidding upward two degrees and thus reducing each angle of incidence by two degrees. In this way the tail loses proportionally half its lift while the wing loses only one sixth its lift. This greater proportional loss of lift by the tail allows it to drop back to a normal position.

Similarly a nose high position gives the tail a much greater proportional increase of lift which raises it to normal position.

Lateral stability is kept by having equal amounts of keel surface above and below the center of weight.

Let ZZ be the axis through the center of weight above which the plane pivots in its lateral motion. If there were forty square feet of keel surface above and forty square feet below the center of weight, with a wind pressure of twenty pounds per square foot on one side, there would be a total force of twenty times forty or eight hundred pounds tending to roll the plane each way. These two forces would balance each other. If there were more area above, such as an added fin A, a gust would roll the plane (the top) in the direction in which it was traveling.

This stability is obtained by having more keel surface behind the center of weight C than in front of it.

The plane is traveling in the direction D and is shown by the solid outline. A gust strikes the tail and swings it to the position shown by the dotted outline. The one force, the new propeller thrust NT tries to carry it in that direction, and the other force, momentum, works in the direction D. The actual motion of the plane is a skid in the direction M, the resultant of the forces. The skidding action creates a strong air pressure on the side of the fuselage, and since there is more surface behind the center of weight, there is a greater force there which blows the ail back to its former position.

Aviation is rapidly taking its place today as a common carrier, and the time when it will share with the older forms the problems of transportation is here. Its development will follow those lines where landing facilities are offered en route to traffic centers. May I send best wishes to Mansfield for the success of its Municipal Airport, and to the Manhigan because of its interest in aviation?
